Marquet International Celebrates Five Years

Boston – February 15, 2011 – Marquet International, Ltd. announced today that it is celebrating five years in business this month. Since February 2006, Marquet International has been providing expert investigative, litigation support and corporate security services to its clients, including law firms, financial institutions, corporations, and their counsel.

“We are pleased to have reached this important milestone in our history,” said Christopher T. Marquet, founder and CEO of Marquet International. “As a boutique investigations and business intelligence firm, our growth has been dependent upon delivering the highest quality investigative services available – especially in the past few years’ difficult economy,” said Marquet. “Happy clients and referrals are critical for the success of business services firms like Marquet International,” he continued.

In marking the occasion, Marquet International will be presenting a series of exclusive five year anniversary lectures on topics such as Due Diligence for the Private Equity Industry; Litigation Intelligence: Vetting Parties in Disputes; Ponzi Schemers, Embezzlers and Fraudsters, Oh My! and Asset Recovery In A Down Economy.

Marquet International’s services include, but are not limited to the following:

- Due diligence on key individuals in business, M&A and financial transactions;
- Fraud & employee misconduct investigations and employment disputes;
- Litigation intelligence – vetting plaintiffs, defendants, experts and witnesses;
- Financial investigations and forensic accounting;
- Discovery support and computer forensics;
- Asset recovery and intelligence;
- Intellectual property investigations;
- Competitive & business intelligence;
- Corporate contest, proxy battle & takeover intelligence; and
- Corporate security consulting

Marquet International publishes its annual Report on Embezzlement.
